The Mission of Boston College

Strengthened by more than a century and a quarter of dedication to academic excellence, Boston College commits itself to the highest standards of teaching and research in undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs and to the pursuit of a just society through its own accomplishments, the work of its faculty and staff, and the achievements of its graduates. It seeks both to advance its place among the nation's finest universities and to bring to the company of its distinguished peers and to contemporary society the richness of the Catholic intellectual ideal of a mutually illuminating relationship

A Brief History of Boston College

Boston College was founded by the Society of Jesus in 1863, and is one of twenty-eight Jesuit colleges and universities in the United States. With three teachers and twenty-two students, the school opened its doors on September 5, 1864. At the outset and for more than seven decades of its first century, the college remained an exclusively liberal arts institution with emphasis on the Greek and Latin classics, English and modern languages and with more attention to philosophy than to the physical or social sciences. Religion, of course, had its place in the classroom as well as in the nonacademic life of the college.

Originally located on Harrison Avenue in the South End of Boston, where it shared quarters with the Boston College High School, the College outgrew its urban setting toward the end of

A Boston College Chronology*

The Jesuit Community at Boston College

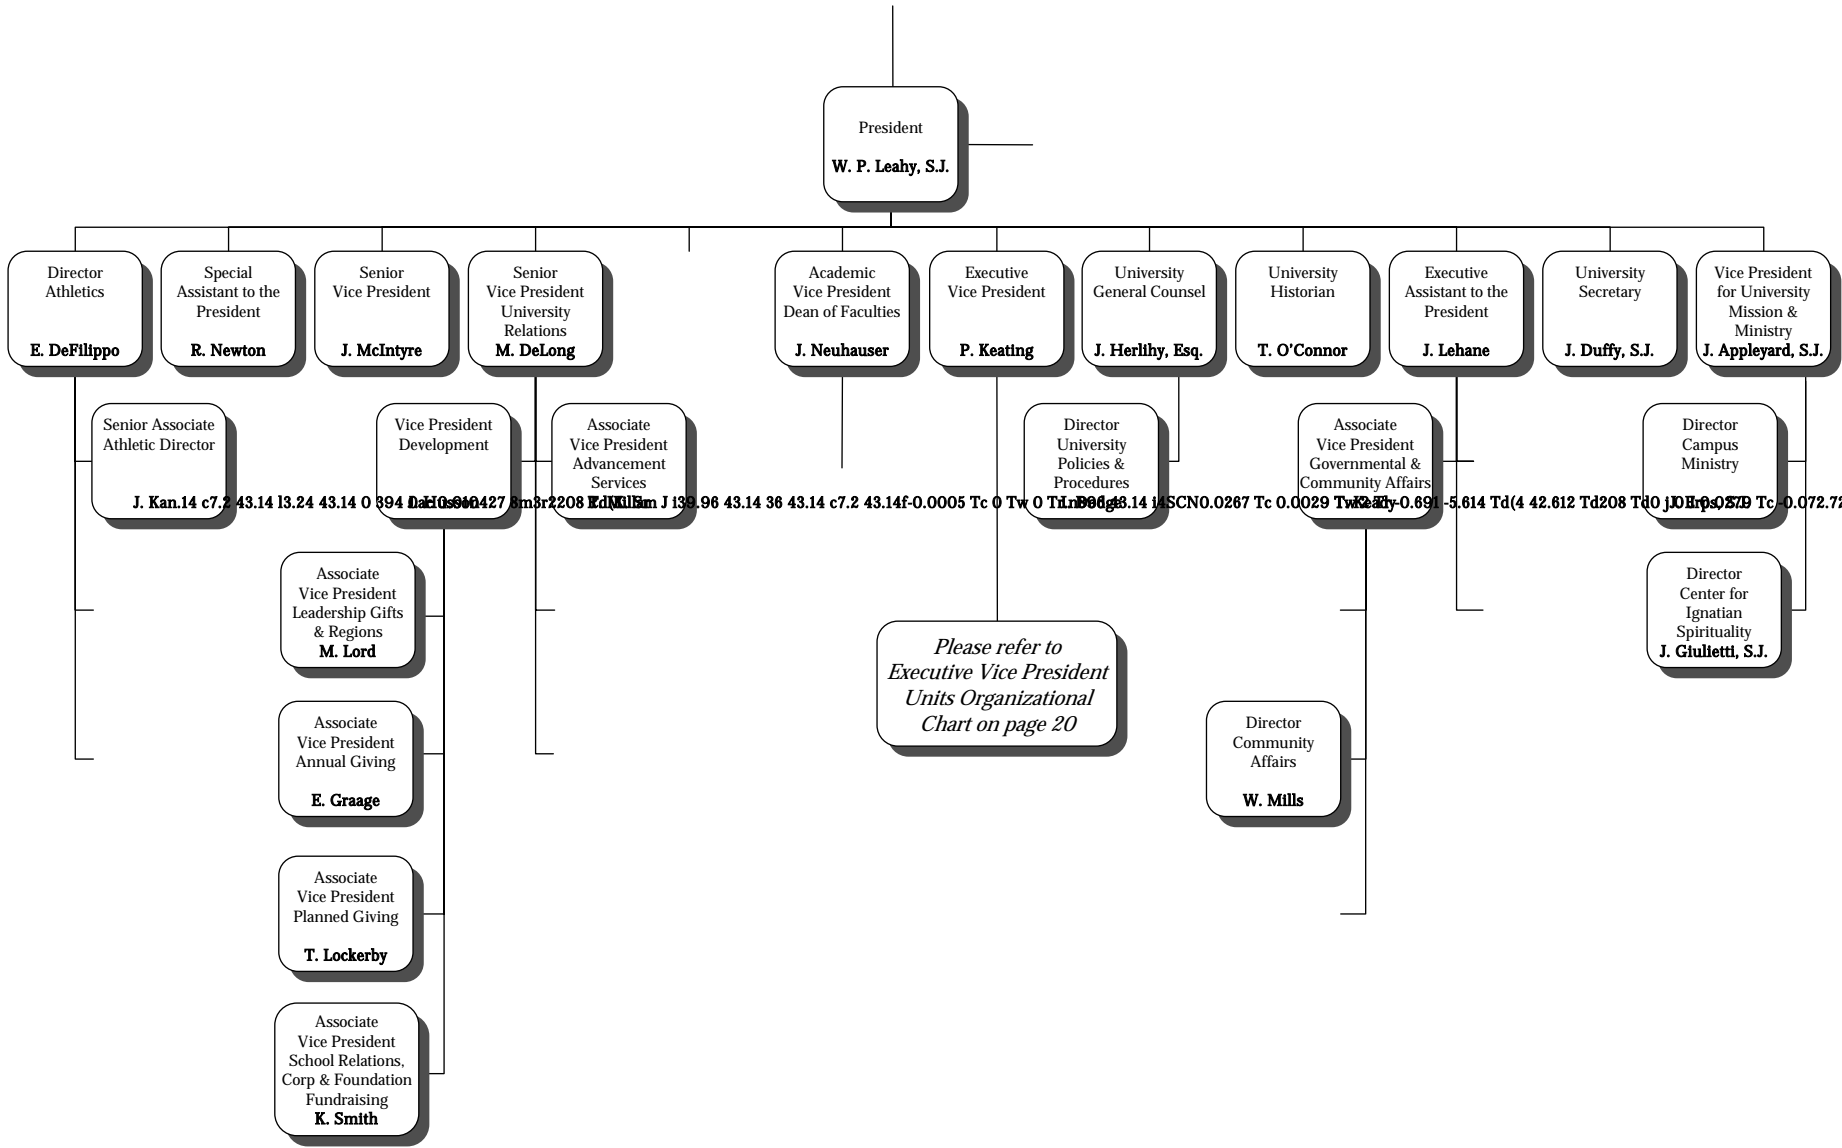

With nearly 110 members, the Jesuit Community at Boston College is one of the larger communities in the Society of Jesus. Forty-five Jesuits work full-time at Boston College, thirty on different faculties and fifteen in administrative positions. Eleven members of the community, though nominally retired, continue to teach and work in administrative posts on a part-time basis. A number of Jesuits in the community also offer Ignatian retreats and spiritual direction to faculty, staff, and students. Also part of the community are some 21 Jesuits from 16 different countries who are studying for graduate degrees at the University and several visiting scholars from other institutions. The main community residence is St. Mary's Hall, but there are also four smaller communities around the perimeter of the campus. Six Jesuits live in the residence halls. The Jesuits who staff St. Ignatius Parish are also a part of the Boston College Jesuit Community. For further details, including a list of courses taught by Jesuits at Boston College, see the Jesuit Community Web page at <http://fnwww.bc.edu/SJ>

Digital Library Services

Quest: The Library Information System

Quest, the Libraries' Web based integrated system provides convenient access to the Libraries' collections, digital resources, and services from www.bc.edu/quest. It offers a variety of methods for finding books, periodicals, media resources, microforms, newspapers, and electronic materials.

Quest can easily be searched from any Web browser regardless of platform or location, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Users can interact with the system and receive immediate feedback on the status of requests; they can place a hold, recall or request rush processing for a new book right from their desktop. Users can also initiate and track requests for document delivery and interlibrary loan transactions, and may renew materials that are currently charged to them. The Web interface and expanded cataloging capabilities allow unprecedented access to thousands of Web accessible scholarly resources, to full text journals and to digital collections of photographs and other material.

Digital Resources

The Boston College Libraries offer access to hundreds of electronic indexes and databases. A growing number of these databases include full text access to thousands of books and journals directly from the researcher's desktop. See the list of Online Databases on the Libraries' home page, www.bc.edu/libraries.html to get a sense of the range of

Academic Development Center

The ADC is a comprehensive, inclusive resource serving all of the University's students and faculty. The mission of the Center is to enhance teaching and learning across the university. One of the ADC's three professional staff members assists students with learning disabilities, helping to ensure their academic success at Boston College. The Center also sponsors seminars, workshops, and discussions for faculty and graduate teaching fellows on strategies for successful teaching and learning.

To address the needs of the great majority of Boston College students, the Center provides tutoring for more than 60 courses, including calculus, statistics, biology, chemistry, nursing, accounting, classical and foreign languages, English as a Second

The McMullen Museum of Art

The Charles S. and Isabella V. McMullen Museum of Art aims to increase understanding of the visual arts, to encourage inquiry, and to enrich learning through the display of a notable permanent collection and special exhibitions of international importance. The Museum occupies two floors of Devlin Hall. Spacious galleries with movable walls provide flexible exhibition spaces that rival venues in larger museums. The Museum maintains an active special exhibition program, bringing outstanding works from around the world to Chestnut Hill. The Museum organizes public lectures, symposia, workshops, film series, and gallery tours to accompany current exhibitions. Begun in the nineteenth century, the University's permanent collection contains works that span the history of art from Europe, Asia, and the Americas. Outstanding among them are Gothic and Baroque tapestries, Italian paintings of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, American landscape paintings of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, and Japanese prints. The collection is displayed on a rotating basis in the Museum's galleries. In keeping

University Research Institutes and Centers

Center for Child, Family, and Community Partnerships

The Center for Child, Family and Community Partnerships is an “outreach scholarship” program that fosters collaboration among Boston College faculty and students, and community leaders in health care, social service, economic development, and education.

The goal of the participants is to create stronger, healthier, and more economically sound communities. The Center offers technical assistance, program evaluation, needs assessment, training, and consultation to community organizations.

Web site: <http://www.csteep.bc.edu/ccfcp/>.

Center for Corporate Citizenship at Boston College

The Center for Corporate Citizenship provides leadership in establishing corporate citizenship as a business essential, so all companies act as economic and social assets by integrating societal interests with other core business objectives. Part of Boston College’s Carroll School of Management, The Center offers research and development on corporate citizenship; publications that include an on-line newsletter, research reports, and white papers; executive education programs, including on-site and custom programs and a Certificate program in corporate community involvement; convenings including the annual

Jesuit Institute

The Jesuit Institute was established in 1988 to contribute towards the response to the question of identity. The Institute, initially funded by the Jesuit Community at Boston College, is not an additional or separate academic program. It is rather a research institute which works in cooperation with existing schools, programs and faculties, primarily but not exclusively, at Boston College. Within an atmosphere of complete academic freedom essential to a university, the Institute engages positively in the intellectual exchange that constitutes the University. Its overarching purpose is to foster research and collaborate interchange upon those issues that emerge at the intersection of faith and culture. Through its programs, the Institute does this in two ways: by supporting the exploration of those religious and ethical questions raised by this intersection and by supporting the presence of scholars committed to these questions. Web site: http://www.bc.edu/bc_org/avp/acavp/jesin/.

Lonergan Center

Studies related to the work of the Jesuit theologian and philosopher Bernard Lonergan (1904-1984) are fostered and advanced in the Lonergan Center at Boston College. Inaugurated in 1986, the Center houses a growing collection of Lonergan's published and unpublished writings as well as secondary materials and reference works, and it also serves as a seminar and meeting room. Boston College sponsors the annual Lonergan Institute, which provides resources, lectures, and workshops for the study of the thought of Bernard Lonergan, S.J. Web site: <http://www.bc.edu/lonergan>.

Mathematics Institute

The Boston College Mathematics Institute was established in 1957 as a unit separate from the Mathematics Department to assist in the effort to improve the content and instructional practice of mathematics at school level. In the 1960's and 1970's the primary focus of the Institute was on providing veteran teachers with renewal programs and professional development opportunities to update and deepen their background in mathematics. The National Science Foundation was a major source of funding. Concurrently, Institute staff developed some supplementary instructional materials to use with students in the grades K-12. At present, the Mathematics Institute offers professional enhancement courses for teachers in the summers at Boston College and other sites. Other current projects include research studies and content development related to school level mathematics concerns. Web site: <http://www.bc.edu/mathinst>.

Boisi Center for Religion and American Public Life

The Center for Religion and American Public Life was founded to bring together high quality research and scholarship on religion to bear on issues of public policy in America. The Center's goal is not to advance any ideological agenda, whether liberal or conservative. The Center seeks instead to be the sponsor of dialogue and discussion which brings together people whose primary concerns are religious with people whose primary concerns are political, in the belief that they will find common ground. The main goals of the Center include the promotion of scholarship dealing with religion and public life, faculty and student development at Boston College, and outreach activities that contribute to a more robust public discussion of critical issues. Web site: http://www.bc.edu/bc_org/research/rapl.

Small Business Development Center

The Small Business Development Center (SBDC) provides managerial, financial and technical assistance and training to small business people in the Greater Boston area. Prospective and active small business people can receive one-on-one counseling and consultative assistance in a range of business areas such as finance, marketing, planning, operations, accounting and controls. The SBDC also offers specially designed small business management training workshops. Topics include writing a business plan, financial planning, marketing, strategic planning, cash flow and general management as well as other varied topics. Web site: http://www.bc.edu/bc_org/avp/csom/executive/sbdc.

Social Welfare Research Institute

The Social Welfare Research Institute (SWRI) is a multidisciplinary research center specializing in the study of spirituality, wealth, philanthropy, and other aspects of cultural life in an age of affluence. SWRI is a recognized authority on the meaning and practice of care, on the patterns and trends in individual charitable giving, on philanthropy by the wealthy, and forthcoming $41 trillion wealth transfer. SWRI has published research on a new donor-centered approach to fundraising that moves away from the "scolding model"; on the spiritual questions raised by wealth; on survey methodology; on the Boston Area Diary Study of formal and informal care in daily life; and on financial transfers to family and philanthropy by the wealthy. Other areas of research include the "new physics of philanthropy," which identifies the economic and social-psychological vectors inclining wealth holders toward philanthropy, among them, an entrepreneurial disposition, identification, association, and gratitude. One new research direction is reconceptualizing planned giving as part of a broader process of gift-planning and life-planning. Another is developing and training others to use a discernment methodology for guiding wealth holders through a self-reflective process of decision-making about wise choices in finances and philanthropy, and based on the Ignatian principles of liberty and inspiration. Web site: <http://www.bc.edu/swri>.

Weston Observatory

Weston Observatory, formerly Weston College Seismic Station (1928-1949), is a part of the Department of Geology and Geophysics of Boston College. Located 10 miles from the main campus, the Observatory is an interdisciplinary research facility of the Department, and a center for research in the fields of geophysics, geology, and related fields. Weston Observatory was one of the first participating facilities in the Worldwide Standardized Seismograph Network and operates a twelve-station regional seismic network that records data on earthquakes in the northeast, as well as distant earthquakes. The facilities at Weston Observatory offer students a unique opportunity to work on exciting projects with modern, sophisticated, scientific research equipment in a number of different areas of scientific and environmental interest.

Intercollegiate Athletic Season Highlights 2002-2003

BASEBALL

Head Coach: Pete Hughes

Record: 33-21 (13-11 BIG EAST)

Recap: After a slow start, the Eagles rebounded to win 18 of their last 28 games. Included in that were seven- and five-game win streaks. At various points of the year, Boston College received votes in the Sports Weekly/ESPN Top 25, http://www.sportsweek.com/special/packages/story?base=baseball/bc tri-captain Sean McReynolds led the Eagles in three of their four tournaments.

Women's Head Coach: Frank Kolarik

Women's Recap: The team opened the spring season with the goal of qualifying for the inaugural BIG EAST Championship. Led by sophomore Kori Goulet, the Eagles were one of four teams selected for the event, held at Notre Dame's Warren Golf Course. There, BC finished third, eight strokes ahead of fourth-place finisher Georgetown. Other highlights of the season included a second-place finish at the Brown Invitational. In the fall, BC had three second-place finishes; at the Rutgers Invitational, the ECAC Championship and the Dartmouth Invitational.

ICE HOCKEY

Men's Head Coach: Jerry York

Men's Record: 24-11-4 (16-6-2 Hockey East)

Postseason: NCAA Tournament

Men's Recap: Boston College earned a share of the Hockey East regular-season crown, marking the school's eighth title – a league-high – in 19 seasons. Ben Eaves earned All-America first team honors, while J.D. Forrest earned All-America second team accolades. The regular season also saw Eaves earn Hockey East Co-Player of the Year honors and the 2002-03 scoring title. In addition, sophomore goaltender Matti Kaltainen was named the HOCKEY EAST Goaltender of the Year with a league-low 2.20 goals-against average. The Eagles received an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and were the second seed in the East Regional, held in Providence, R.I. BC's NCAA Tournament appearance was its 23rd all-time, and fifth in the past six seasons.

Women's Head Coach: Tom Babson

Women's Record: 12-17-1 (2-10-3 Hockey East)

Women's Recap: Boston College had a record-setting year, posting the most Division I wins in program history, and earning its best record since the 1994-95 campaign. The Eagles defeated Northeastern in the first round of the Beanpot, to earn BC's first-ever win over the Huskies and its first Hockey East victory. A talented tandem of young goaltenders, Lisa Davis and Alison Quandt, led the Eagles to success, while making their own marks in the BC record books.

INDOOR TRACK

Head Coach: Randy Thomas

Men's Recap: The Eagles competed hard during the indoor season, coming up with several excellent performances at a number of meets. The team finished in a tie for second at the Terrier Cup, and placed runner-up at a tri-meet against BU and Providence as well as one versus New Hampshire and Vermont. The 4x800-meter relay team -- consisting of Vernon Mickle, Dan MacIsaac, Anthony Calabro and Brenton Wheatley -- grabbed a point at the BIG EAST Championships courtesy of its eighth-place finish. Mickle followed that up with a runner-up finish in the 800 at the New England Championships, at which Boston College came in 10th out of 31 teams.

Women's Recap: The Eagles capped a season filled with record-setting individual performances with a 10th-place finish at the BIG EAST Championships. Julie Spolidoro was crowned BIG EAST champion in the 5,000. At the New England Championships, the team placed eighth, with Christina Regan and Melissa Sherman winning the pentathlon and 500, respectively. Maggie Guiney, Jennifer Donovan and the distance medley relay all scored points for the Eagles as they finished 19th at ECACs the following week. Spolidoro went on to become an All-American after taking 10th in the 3,000 at nationals.

LACROSSE

Head Coach: Shari Krasnoo

Record: 9-6 overall (2-4 BIG EAST)

Recap: The women's lacrosse team finished with a record of 9-6. Two of the team's losses this season come by just one goal, each occurring early in the season. Jacklyn Yovankin was named the BIG EAST Player of the Week and selected to the womenslacrosse.com
